Invitation

Dear KATARZYNA MARIA KUJAWSKA-MURPHY(Ms.)

We extend a heartfelt invitation for you to join us at the opening ceremony of the 2024 Huangjian County Peony International Arts & Culture Month on April 13th. This event is proudly hosted by the local government and will also mark the commencement of the enrollment for Chinese Students of University of the Arts Poznan(UAP) and Krzysztof Penderecki Academy of Music in Cracow(AMKP).The ceremony is the highlight of the event, accompanied by an enrollment consultation expo and a vocal masterclass.

Huangjian Town, nestled by the Yellow Sea in China, stands as the quintessential heart of the Yancheng Coastal Wetlands, and is famously known as the homeland of the Red-crowned Crane. The locals have always embraced a symbiotic and friendly relationship with nature, turning this stretch of the Yellow Sea's tidal flats into a crucial layover point along the East Asia-Australasia Flyway for migratory birds. In recent years, Huangjian Town has been moving beyond traditional development models, actively seeking integration with trendy business formats to inject more vitality into the area. Wandering through the villages here, one can't help but feel engulfed in a rich artistic atmosphere. The town has hosted numerous domestic and international art forums and exhibitions, delving deep into cultural heritage to enhance aesthetic values, foster exchanges between Chinese traditional culture and global cultures, and actively propel the Yancheng Coastal Wetlands tourist and resort district towards national and international prominence, driving the cultural and tourism industry towards internationalization, high-end development, and artistry.
